

AND STILL WE MOVE

by Crissi Cochrane

VERSE ONE

I wasn't tired, and the night was young
So I left some words on your answering machine
I had been thinking them, oh some long years
But you were just a beautiful dream

We had a sacred trust, one voice for everyone
And the longest story there'll ever be to tell
So we built an ark made to sail the night sky
And sent it off, side by side, you and I

CHORUS

Baby I was thinking of you
On that day so new
And still we move
With the sound of my heart
Beating for you
And still we move

Abm7 Bb7 EbM7 Abm7*

VERSE TWO

And then I heard your voice, that sound so sweet
Calling to take my hand for keeps
So when I told that tale, I drew a history
Of ideas and of man and you and me

In the verses, I play the AbM7 after EbM7 up on the A string (x-11-13-12-13-x), and then jump back down to the same chord on the low E string (4-6-5-5-x-x) in the beginning of the next line. Wherever this symbol () appears, I play the higher voicing of that chord.

HOW I PLAY THESE CHORDS:

AbM7	4-6-5-5-x-x
Bb7	6-8-6-7-x-x
EbM7	x-6-8-7-8-x
AbM7*	x-11-13-12-13-x
Cm7	x-3-5-3-4-x
Fm7	x-8-10-8-9-x
Gm7	x-10-12-10-11-x
